

Colorado's Finest

KENNELS & RANCH

At the heart of every healthy dog is a robust digestive system, something that nature perfected over millennia. This understanding is the cornerstone of the MaxiVet story and our commitment to your dog's health.

Inspired by Nature, Backed by Science

MaxiFlora is not just a product. It's a testament to our years of dedicated research and expert consultations, aimed at recreating the natural diet of wild canines for your domesticated companion. With MaxiFlora, we bring the wild's wisdom into your home, delivering a blend of probiotics, prebiotics, and digestive enzymes akin to what your dog's ancestors thrived on.

100% Natural, Vet Approved, Proudly Made in the USA

We proudly stand by our promise of an all-natural, vet-approved formula without compromise. And with every chew of MaxiFlora, you're not just giving a supplement; you're ensuring a wealth of health-promoting benefits to your beloved pet.
